Every year the anime market continues to mature and grow, with publishers beginning to branch out into new mediums as the market expands to encompass more fans. By far the major growth area in 2003 was the graphic novel, which will be obvious as you check out the much larger selection in this book than even just last Fall.

When you mention comics to someone here in the US, they think of a small, thin, 32 page or so comic of their favorite action hero. But, to the Japanese, a manga is a thick, novel-sized book, often published in multiple volumes. In Japan, the comic book market is much different than here; it's a giant industry, with manga titles which range from titles for children to more adult fare - just as in the anime world, there is a wide variety of material. It's not at all unusual to see the average Japanese reading a manga on the subway, on the way to work or school, or even drawing their own. You can see some of the doujinshi, or fan comic, world in our newest release on DVD, "Comic Party."

One feature of many of the manga being released today is their release in "authentic Japanese format" - that is, the manga is printed in the same style as it is in Japan. Since Japanese read from right to left, what we would see as the front of the book is actually the back of the book to them. In the past, the publishers have "flipped" these pages to make the books more familiar to American audiences.

As manga has become increasingly popular, multiple companies have announced plans to enter this market in the coming year, including Media Blasters and Del Rey, so the choices and variety of books will be extraordinary. In fact, the number of new releases in the graphic novel category is rapidly approaching the number of DVD releases each month!

As I write this, we've received some of the heaviest snow of the winter, with more than 15 inches today. I've just started a fire and I'm getting ready to check out the rough dub of our upcoming release of "Shingu: Secret of the Stellar Wars." Coming this fall, this title, which is also known as Record of the School Wars: Muryou, is featured on this spring's catalog cover. Shingu features direction by Tatsuo Satou (Nadesico TV / Stellvia / Ninja Scroll TV), and beautiful character designs by Takahiro Yoshimatsu (Trigun / Slayers / Jubei-Chan). Our production department has been buzzing about how good this title is, so I'm really looking forward to taking a look. You'll see this title begin its release in the fall.

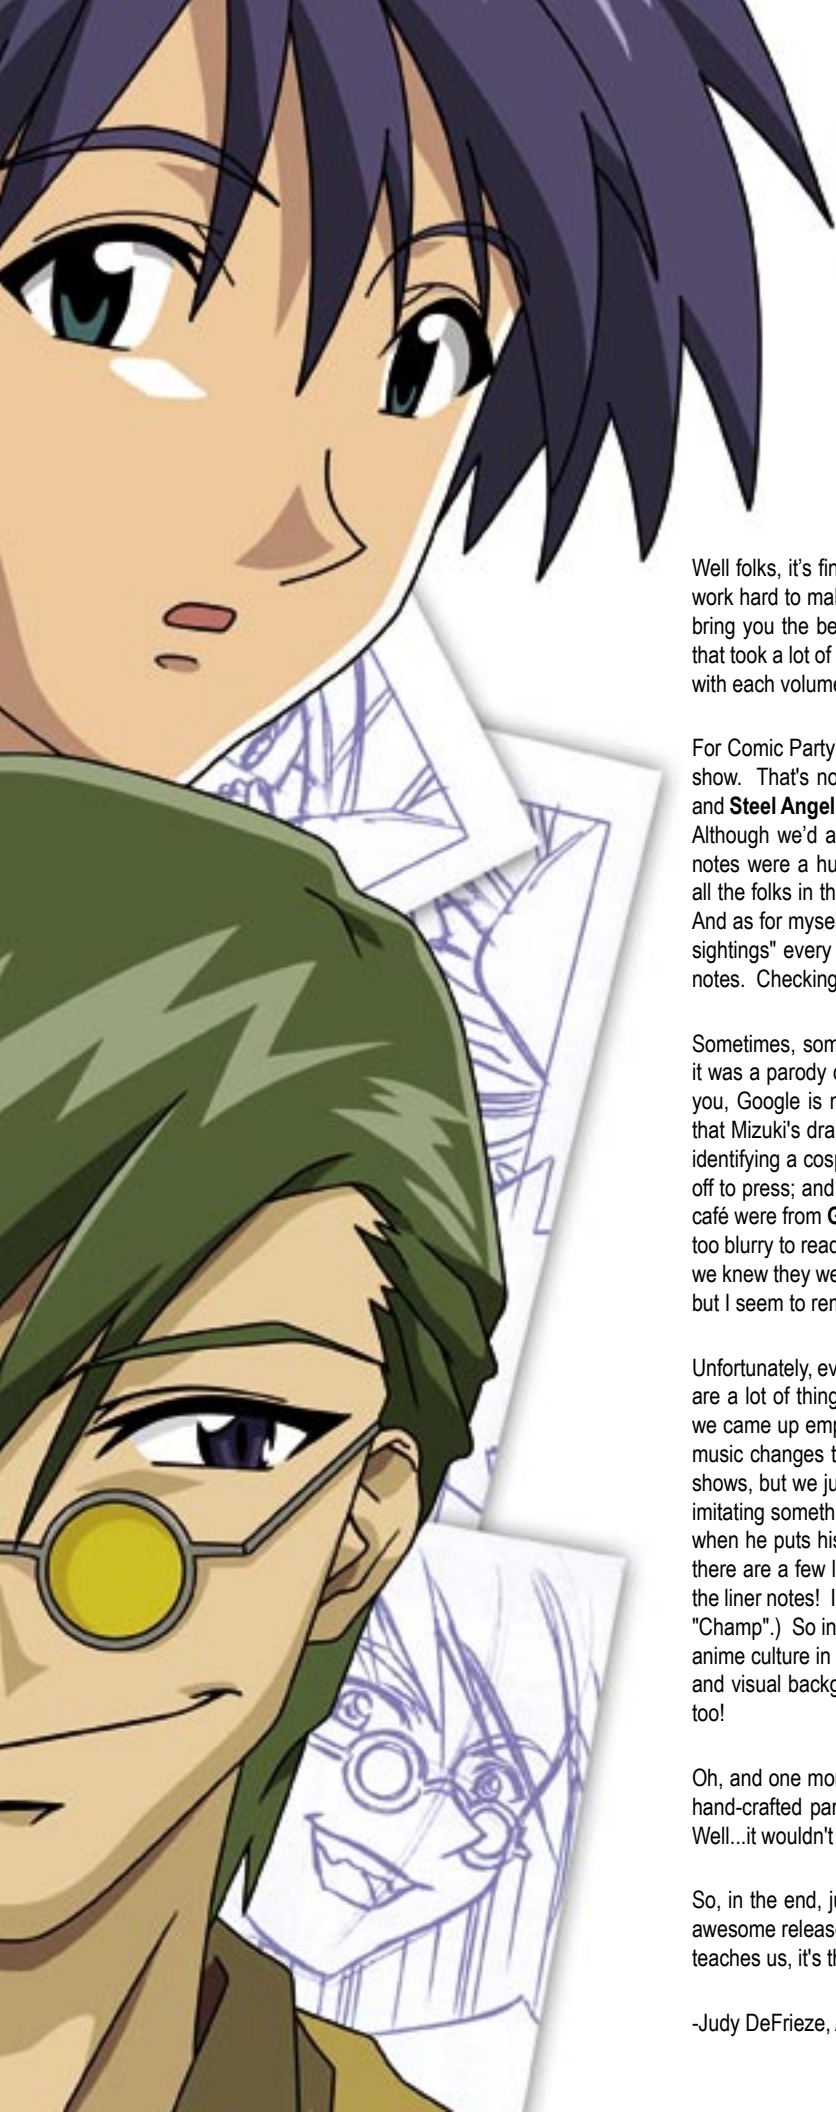

When you're buried in the snow, the last thing you want to think about is going to the store. Our on-line store is available to you 24 hours a day, and you can now utilize the coupons in the print catalog on-line. You also should check the site regularly for news of sales and special offers, as well as discounts on early ordering of new releases! And if you want to save additional money, join our Got Anime frequent buyers club! Check for details on page 9!

As with previous catalogs, we have segregated all products with adult content into a separate section, which can be easily discarded if you wish not to have exposure to such material.

Each and every customer we have is important both to myself and to our staff. It is your business that allows us to prosper and grow, and I certainly hope that we will be able to continue to serve you for many years to come.

The

Well folks, it's finally here - Comic Party has arrived! And just like how doujinshi (fan comic) artists work hard to make their comics shine, we here at Right Stuf also put our noses to the grindstone to bring you the best release possible for this amazing anime/manga parody. One particular feature that took a lot of work (but was also a lot of fun) was the massive amount of liner notes that go along with each volume.

For Comic Party's liner notes, our goal was to be able to point out every parody and homage in the show. That's no easy task – there're parodies of everything from modern shows like Evangelion and Steel Angel Kurumi, all the way back to classic manga like Cyborg 009 and Stop!! Hibari-kun. Although we'd all like to think we're the most knowledgeable otaku out there, Comic Party's liner notes were a huge collaboration from everyone involved in this project. We collected notes from all the folks in the production department, our translators, our subtitle timer, even the dubbing staff! And as for myself and Kris (Comic Party's producers), we kept a spare notepad to jot down "parody sightings" every time we went through another draft of the show... Reviewing the dub? Jot down notes. Checking the subs? Jot down notes. Going through artwork? Jot down more notes.

Sometimes, something would show up that we just knew was a parody, but we weren't sure what it was a parody of. In those cases, we had to search endlessly to find the answers (and let me tell you, Google is my new best friend). Some of the ones that I remember the most were: learning that Mizuki's dramatic collapse at the end of episode 1 is actually from the live-action movie Virus; identifying a cosplayer as Pluie from Wedding Peach, literally one day before sending the booklets off to press; and – after days of searching – finally discovering that the posters outside the CosMIX café were from Ginsou Kikou Ordian! The show's name was written on the posters, but it was way too blurry to read. And yet, the posters show up quite a few times scattered throughout the show, so we knew they were significant! It was pretty late at night when we finally made the Ordian discovery, but I seem to remember there was singing and dancing...

Unfortunately, even with as much information as we packed into the booklets, we also know that there are a lot of things that still aren't in the liner notes. Sometimes, no matter how hard we searched, we came up empty-handed. For instance, as you watch the show, you'll notice that the background music changes to sometimes teasingly familiar songs. That's because a lot of them are from other shows, but we just couldn't make them out... Or maybe a character would make a gesture that was imitating something else, but we didn't know what... (please, if anyone knows who Taishi is imitating when he puts his hair up in a point in episode 13, let us know, 'cause it's driving me crazy!). Also, there are a few little parodies that we didn't spot before deadline. (Here's an insider tip that's not in the liner notes! In episode 12, you can spot a fake issue of Jump magazine - labeled in Japanese as "Champ".) So in other words, keep your eyes open! There's an astounding amount of references to anime culture in this show, all blended seamlessly (and sometimes shamelessly) into both the audio and visual backgrounds. And for you dub lovers, we even snuck a few parodies in the English dub too!

Oh, and one more thing about these lovely liner notes - each of the four booklet covers is a special hand-crafted parody, and we think you'll really get a kick out of 'em. Parodies of what, you ask? Well...it wouldn't be any fun if I just gave away the surprise, now would it?

So, in the end, just know that a lot of people who love anime have done their best to bring you an awesome release that you'll be proud to call your own. After all, if there's one thing that Comic Party teaches us, it's that the best part of fandom is the fans! Cheers, and see you in the fall issue!

life of the party

Ever wonder what goes through the mind of a voice actor? Here's an exclusive interview with Jack Lingo (the voice of Kazuki) and Liam O'Brien (the voice of Taishi) from the English version of Comic Party!

Do you do anything special to prepare before you start acting for the day?

JACK (KAZUKI): I try to wake up early, run four miles and take a long, hot bath. Then I begin my two-hour warm-up period, gargling with salt water and doing vocal exercises taught to me by the famous Russian voice over artist, Vladimir Goro. Just kidding. Actually, my preparation consists of eating chocolate and watching TV before leaving my apartment at the very last possible moment to make it to the studio on time. Call me lazy.

LIAM (TAISHI): Well, when possible, I prefer to watch the show ahead of time. I know there is some debate about whether it's better to see the show ahead of time or not. Some VA's don't like to see things ahead of time, which I think is a little odd. I mean, if I'm gonna do Hamlet, I'm not going to stop reading the play after Act 1. I wanna know what the hell happens in Acts 2, 3, 4, and 5. That's gonna tell me what to do while acting Act 1. I think an actor is in a better place to make decisions about his or her character if the WHOLE ARCH of the story is known. Of course, that's often not possible. Usually I just get thrown into the booth, and we do our best to improvise. What else do I do..? Try to get a lot of sleep the night before.

What was your first impression of your Comic Party character?

JACK (KAZUKI): My first impression of Kazuki was that he was a lot like me! Kinda slow, doesn't really know what's going on around him, naïve...but EXTREMELY TALENTED.

LIAM (TAISHI): "SWEET MOTHER OF PEARL, I CAN DO ANYTHING I WANT WITH THIS GUY!!!"

What's the hardest thing about acting out your character?

JACK (KAZUKI): Kazuki says "Huh?" about 5,000 times throughout the series. It was a challenge to make every single "Huh?" slightly different. Some became "Eh?" or "Oh?" or even "Hunnnhhh?" but I tried not to make the same sound twice.

LIAM (TAISHI): Taishi was a plumb role, but let's face it; all he does is flip out like a maniac. That's a lotta fun, but a hard days work.

What's the most fun thing about acting out your character?

JACK (KAZUKI): The most fun part about playing Kazuki was listening to Taishi's lines and trying not to laugh too hard. He is insane. Truly.

LIAM (TAISHI): Well, he was just nutz. The only way to do this one was to jump in and let it fly. It's fun to do subtle characters too, but I'll take the raving lunatic any day. I was always happiest when recording was shut down by hardcore giggle fits.

What was your favorite episode of Comic Party?

JACK (KAZUKI): The bath-house episodes. I like feeling clean.

LIAM (TAISHI): I recorded all the episodes in three days (flew back east from LA), so I'm a little hazy on episodes. But Joe DiGiorgi (the director) and I laughed hysterically while recording a scene involving a bun. If you can't bust up your coworkers, what's the point?

If you could be friends with one of the Comic Party characters, who would it be and why?

JACK (KAZUKI): I think Kazuki. He's a very nice, earnest guy. He would be a great friend. Plus, for some reason I feel like he would loan me money without being a pest about paying him back quickly.

LIAM (TAISHI): That cosplaying girl, cuz she's a fox.

Describe Taishi in five words or less.

JACK (KAZUKI): His mind is on fire

LIAM (TAISHI): Attention Deficit Disorder Poster Child

What message would you like to give to your fans?

JACK (KAZUKI): Hey there, Joe. You're my only fan, so I guess I'll just send this message out to you. How's it going? Oh, I'm fine, thanks for asking. Anyway, I appreciate you being my only fan. It must get lonely, but in the end I hope you find it rewarding. If you ever wanna hang out sometime, send me an email!

LIAM (TAISHI): Well, I really hope the fun we had recording Taishi comes across as you watch Comic Party. I love the fact that I work on these shows- and the only reason there are so many of them to work on now is because of you guys. Muchos muchos gracias.

The SPOTLIGHT

the lights flare, the music pulses and your heart is pounding as the best romance of 2004 takes the stage - Gravitation

A couple of years ago, a friend handed me a tape and told me I just had to check out this new show – it was amazing – intriguing – utterly captivating. Knowing absolutely nothing about this show, I popped the tape into my player expecting to see something like a cross between Evangelion and His and Her Circumstances. Instead, I discovered a very normal (although extremely hyperactive) Shuichi Shindo - a kid simply dreaming to be a rock star like his pop idol Ryuichi Sakuma and his band Nittle Grasper.

So I thought, okay, maybe something like Chance Pop Sessions or American Idol? Is this just going to be about another band looking to make it big? Oh no – not even close. Within the first 5 minutes of the show, I quickly discovered Gravitation was one of those shows that simply sucks you in and never lets you go. Sure the show is about Shuichi and his band Bad Luck trying to top the charts, but at heart, Gravitation is an absolutely amazing story of the power of love. And I knew after seeing the first episode that we had to produce this show for the States.

Now, most of the fans out there were shocked, although extremely happy, when we officially announced this title. Who would have ever thought that this little show would get picked up? After all, it was by a group of relative unknowns in the US at the time (Maki Murakami's manga weren't being released yet) and let's face it – it is shonen-ai (boys x boys). Oh yeah - I can hear a bunch of people reading this article groaning and swearing they'll never pick it up just because of that fact, but I really believe that the anime community at large is not so narrow minded; and if you are – you're really missing out on something extraordinary because, like love, Gravitation isn't about gender, it's about how people feel towards each other - pure and simple. In fact, one of the main concerns fans had when we picked up this title was that we would switch Shuichi's gender to a girl. It would have been quite easy to do. However, I strongly felt that it would lessen the show, and being a true otaku at heart, I hate to see any show edited from its original form.

Now once we had picked up the title, casting it was a bit tricky. Since the show revolves around the music industry, the vocal tracks that Shuichi and Ryuichi sing play a huge part in the show (and believe me once you hear the music you're really going to want to have that soundtrack!). But messing with Japanese songs is always tricky. First, you have the fans in the States who want to hear the original Japanese vocals. Then, even if you wanted to dub the tracks, you have to find all the individual bands and record companies that cooperated on the show and get their permission to basically alter their songs. In the end, we decided to leave the Japanese vocals intact. Of course, this made casting much more difficult because it meant we had to find someone who matched the original singer close enough that it would seem believable that it was the same person. (For those of you who read the credits of the show, you'll notice that Tomokazu Seki, the original Japanese seiyuu for Shuichi, didn't do the vocals for the songs either – most of them were done by Kinya Kotani.)

Casting for this show...well I probably shouldn't give everything away in this article. I have to leave something for the DVDs after all! Needless to say, working on Gravitation was a great joy. It's a terrific love story with an amazing mix of drama and comedy (not to mention music!) that will make it one of the best remembered love stories for years to come. So this June 29th, make sure to pick up a copy of Gravitation DVD 1: Fateful First Encounter. I hope that you enjoy it as much as I enjoyed producing it.

GENERAL

To benefit our customers, we have implemented a rating system for many of our products based on our staff's knowledge of each title's content, as well as input from the various anime suppliers.

ALL

Generally acceptable for children. No Nudity. Possible mild violence.

12+ 13+

May contain violence, brief nudity, and/or mild language. May suggest sexual situations, but no situations are shown. Parental discretion advised.

15+, 16+, 17+

Extreme violence, Explicit Nudity, and/or Extreme Language may be contained in the picture. May contain sexually explicit material. Absolutely not for anyone under 18 years of age.

Please note: Ratings used within our system are oftentimes provided by the manufacturer of the product. Because of the differences in ratings used by these companies, we have combined their systems, with the descriptions of the ratings listed above. TRSI does not set ratings (except for its own products) and is not responsible for errors, omissions, or inaccurate ratings. These ratings are guidelines only, and are subject to change.

Running Time / Video Length

Next to the age rating of each item, you will see the approximate running time listed for each video. Depending on the manufacturer, running times may or may not include extra bonus features such as previews.

Edited and Uncut

Although many fans screech in horror at the very thought of altering the original Japanese version of a show, for a series to make it to American TV (or even into some retail stores) they must often be edited. This means that scenes containing nudity, excessive violence, blood, and foul language are altered or even totally removed. Anime purists may want the original in all its glory, but parents of young TV viewers do not. Manufacturers recognized this and often release both the Edited (TV Version) and the Uncut (Original Version) of the show.

Release Dates

If an item has not yet been released at the time of this catalog's printing, you may see a release date listed for the item. However, manufacturers can (and often do) change these release dates due to production delays. If you are ordering an item with a release date and are concerned whether this item is on schedule, please feel free to check the item's release date through its online listing, contact customer service at 1-800-338-6827, or even email customer service at info@rightstuf.com.

Mosaic

The digital "mosaic" effect is sometimes placed over the relevant bits during a particularly adult sequence prior to the title being exported from Japan. When we are aware that a particular volume or title has this effect, we'll mark it as Mosaic in the volume listing.

Why do you charge for your catalog?

Unfortunately, paper does cost money. In order to keep producing a printed catalog, this means that we have to charge a small fee for it (but don't you think it's worth it?) However, you can get your money right back by using the $4 off coupon on page 93! (Not to mention the tons of other great coupons back there.)

Will I get your next catalog?

If you've ordered something from us in the last year, you will automatically receive the new catalog when it is shipped. If not, you may find that you'll stop receiving catalogs (and you will have to send us the current catalog fee to reactivate your catalog status).

When does your next catalog come out?

Why, every spring and fall!

Where are the Adult products?

Since our catalog is delivered to anime fans of all ages, we've taken special precautions to ensure the younger fans are not exposed to products that contain explicit violence, adult situations, or sexual content (18+). Products of this nature have been placed in a special section just for adults. Please feel free to remove this section - it really won't hurt our feelings.

Please be aware that this does not mean that all items in the regular sections are intended for young children. To help parents, we've taken special care to make sure that products are marked with age ratings.

What's this "Got Anime" thing?

An easy way to get an additional discount on your favorite anime items. For a small yearly membership fee you get additional discounts on great products, a groovy Got Anime bumper sticker, the latest catalog, newsletters and members only specials! Read more about the Got Anime Purchasing Club on page 9. Please note that international members of the Club will no longer receive mailings, due to postage cost.

Why don't you carry that many imports?

Limited availability of imports and lack of timely distribution of such overseas items make it difficult to provide quality imports on a timely basis. We are continuously scouring the market to find a stable way to bring imports to our customers and hope to do so in the future. Please check our website (www.rightstuf.com) for the latest news on imports.

Why don't you have <Title Here> Audio Soundtrack CD from Japan?

Um...I know I'm getting bad at geography, but I'm pretty sure that's an import - see above question regarding imports. You also might want to check our Soundtracks section because a number of titles are now being released domestically.

I really want to learn Japanese...

What resources do you have?

There are a couple of books in the catalog, which might be of interest - particularly "Basic Japanese Through Comics" and "The Anime Companion." The Internet is also an excellent resource and you might check with local school districts and community colleges to see if they have any courses available.

Please don't email your order, it's very insecure and someone could steal your credit card number.

Can I get a new order form?

You can give us the information on the form or on any scrap of paper. As long as we can read it, you are fine (hieroglyphics just wasn't our specialty in any life). You can also print one from our online pdf at: www.rightstuf.com/customer/images/orderform.pdf

How can I check on my order?

If you placed your order through our online store (www.rightstuf.com) you can check your order status when you login. Otherwise, simply call our friendly Customer Service people at 1-800-338-6827 or email us at info@rightstuf.com.

How long is a typical item "out of stock" for?

With a few exceptions, DVD delays can be measured in days. There are some freak delays, but 2-4 weeks is usually a safe figure. However, please keep in mind that some items are directly imported from Japan, and may be in short supply even there, and should the vendor be out of stock at the time of our re-supply order with them, it may be a bit longer. We keep thousands of items in stock, and our computer system automatically adjusts stock levels based on demand.

Can I use my coupons for an online order?

Yes, you can. Simply use the Coupon Code that is on your coupon when you place your online order. You can only use one coupon per order and only one catalog coupon per customer.

Can I order online Daily Deals or Special Pre-Order Discounted items through the mail or over the phone?

Sorry, but these special offers are only available through our online store at www.rightstuf.com and if you check in often enough, you might find some amazing deals online!

How many coupons can I use with my order?

You can only use one coupon per order and some coupons can only be used through our online store. Please see coupon details for specific restrictions.

Do I need to add sales tax?

Only if you happen to live in Iowa.

If I move, should I inform you?

Certainly a good idea (Right Stuf would be the FIRST notice I'd send if I were you), especially if you want to keep getting stuff from us. Just drop us a quick note, giving us your old address, and your new address, so that we can update our records.

MAIL-IN ORDERS

I went to your online store and I wanted to order, but I don't have a credit card?

What do I do?

Should you prefer to flip through the online store to select items, you can actually use it to place an order by mail! Simply select all of the items you want and place them in your cart. When you proceed to checkout, make sure to choose the "faxed or mailed order" option. This will generate a printed form with everything already added up for you (no more calculators!) Just print this form and mail it in with your payment. Although you can use the online store to generate your order, nothing will be recorded by our system so make sure that you don't lose your form or you'll have to re-enter everything all over again!

Why do you hold my order when I pay with a check?

Even with all this cool technology, checks require at least 18 days to clear. In a perfect world, this would not be so.

What's this NSF charge?

"Non-Sufficient Funds" means, in English, your check bounced. This is bad. We will charge you for this. There is a $25 charge for all returned checks.

PAYMENT METHODS

Do you take Discover / VISA / MasterCard / American Express ?

Yes to all. About the only plastic that we don't take are standard ATM and gasoline cards.

If I order using a credit card, when do you charge it?

Credit cards (by law in our state, actually) get charged only when the product actually ships. Unless there's some freaky deposit problem, that's the only time.

I'm an international customer. What's with this extra data you need?

With international mail and credit card fraud becoming a growing problem, we felt it was better to ask you for additional information rather than charge everyone outside the country a lot more for their stuff. For first time orders only, we require a copy of some form of ID (can be drivers license, passport, credit card statement, utility bill, etc.) which shows your address along with a photocopy of BOTH the FRONT AND BACK side of your credit card. This information is to help keep credit card fraud down and is for your protection as well. Upon request, Right Stuf can provide a secure website location for our international customers to submit this information. This policy only affects first-time international buyers. This allows us to better protect you by making sure you are receiving the product.

SHIPPINGHow long does it take to ship an order?

From the time we receive the order and place it in our system, standard processing time to ship it is 24-48 hours. If some of the items are on back order, it can take an average of 10-14 business days for us to receive the back-ordered items. Then standard processing time goes into effect.

What are your methods of shipping?

Please see our order form for details and prices.

Are there any other shipping options available?

Additional shipping options are available for orders placed by phone or through our online store (www.rightstuf.com).

How much is shipping for Pre-packs?

Shipping is simple: use the amount for a SINGLE item.

I'm not at home in the day. Can you ship to my office?

Certainly (in fact, we prefer to do this to ensure that you actually get your stuff), but please give us all the information that you can, including the name of the company, so that your friendly delivery person can get your package to you. We require that you include the business' name in the address. We are happy to work with you to get the product to you as quickly as possible. Unfortunately for American Express cardholders, American Express' own restriction policies will not allow this. You could also choose to have the product shipped to you by mail instead.

I chose express delivery and my product still took 2 weeks to arrive. What's up with that?

You must have ordered a product that we didn't have in stock at the time that we received your order. If an item is out of stock when we receive your order, we still ship it out by express delivery the moment we receive it from the manufacturer. Although we do keep significant stock on the items in our catalog, there are times when there may be delays getting items from the manufacturer, as discussed above.

What happens if my country will not allow me to have this sort of tape / My order was seized by the border ... what now?

Sorry. Please consult with the postal authorities of your country prior to placing an order for adult items. We will not be responsible for seized shipments, and cannot provide refunds for seized products.

RETURNING MERCHANDISEWhen I got my <insert title here>, it was bad. What do I do?

If your merchandise is defective due to a flaw in manufacturing, we are more than happy to replace the product. Unopened DVDs and VHS can be returned for Right Stuf store credit (or in the case of credit cards, refunded to the issuing card.) All returns/refunds must be processed within thirty (30) days of the date on your purchase invoice. If you need to complete a return/refund, please obtain a return authorization number from Customer Service at 800-338-6827 or visit our online request form at: www.rightstuf.com/customer/requestform.shtml

Do I have to pay to ship back a product to TRSI?

Unfortunately, Yes. We suggest using the least expensive shipping method available. We will only reimburse shipping for wrong items sent. We will pay the shipping to send the replacement back to you.

PRODUCT INFORMATIONWhat is an OVA (OAV)?

This means Original Video Animation. In normal terms, this means a direct to video release.

What is the difference between the 'Edited' TV episodes and the regular ones that are listed?

One was shown on TV! Duh!! Seriously, this varies depending on the show. Many times the TV episodes are censored. (The TV execs hate doing it as much as you hate them doing it) Censoring is done to coincide with the regulations that TV broadcasters must abide by. This can involve the removal of Nudity, Excessive Violence, Blood (sometimes just a change from red to green makes a difference), and the naughty words. The non-TV versions often times have the episodes in their original form and you get to see the show as the producers intended. You can note this by "TV version," "Toonami," or "Edited" in the item listing.

Is <insert title> CC or Closed-Captioned?

While the standard answer would be yes for most titles, not all shows are given the CC treatment. If we know that a title is CC, we have tried to mark it as such. If you're still unsure of a particular title, please feel free to give us a call or drop an email in our box.

What are some products listed as DUB ONLY or SUB ONLY in this catalog?

Although DVDs allow for the possibility of dual language anime, it is not always possible to license a title for dual language release in the States. So, you end up with manufacturers releasing Subtitle Only (SUB ONLY) or Dubbed Only (DUB ONLY) DVDs. Subtitled DVDs display the dialogue on the bottom of the screen while the actual voices are still in Japanese. Dubbed means the music (probably) is intact, but the voices have been redone in English. In our online system, you will note that subtitled is represented by (S) and dubbed is represented by (D). You might also see (Hyb) which means that both the subtitled and dubbed versions are available on the same DVD.

I saw this show that I think might have been Japanese Animation. Do you have it?

We get questions like this all the time in the company email box. If you can give us enough information, someone can usually identify the program. Please understand, though, that if you ask us about something where "there's a girl who's like a magic user, a guy with a sword who has big hair, and a villain who wants to take over the universe, and I think there are some cat girls in it" there's a problem. This describes about half the films ever made. Also, knowing what a series or movie is doesn't mean that it's available in the US as a licensed product, but it's likely that it is.

Why isn't <insert title here> available in the US?

You might be surprised to find out how much of anime is available in the US. Of the few titles that remain unlicensed, some titles have their rights disputed, or licensors want more money than a title can possibly generate in this market, and, of course, some are currently in negotiation. With the exception of a few TV series (which are a different matter entirely, due to their length), this just about covers it. We do not sell fan subs of non-licensed products, or pirated copies of licensed tapes.

Can we special order series not on the website?

Simply put. If it isn't on our website, we can't get it.

What are some good shows for young children?

Although this is truly a matter of personal preference, we recommend Totoro, Kiki's, Pokemon, Kimba, Flint: Time Detective, and Astro Boy for young anime fans. You might also consider the Sanrio titles like Hello Kitty. Look for the "ALL" age rating in item listings for child-friendly titles.

What's the most horrible, tasteless video you offer?

That really depends largely on the person you ask. If you ask the catalog designers, they would say Cool Devices, Angel of Darkness, Urotsukidoji, and Magic Woman M. Don't let the title fool you. Magic Woman M actually has induced dry heaves. It's that intense. These titles are certainly not for the squeamish, and are most definitely only for adults. Look for them in the Adult catalog.

DVD SPECIFICWhat is Region Coding?

Region coding is a geographical restriction for DVDs and players that allow for licensing of specific materials within different areas, or Regions, of the world. Since DVD players are region specific, you need to make sure that the DVD you purchase is coded for the same region as your player.

What region is your DVD player?

If you purchased your player from a retail outlet in the US, it should be Region 1. You can check the Region coding on your DVD by looking for the Region Code symbol on either the silkscreen or the packaging.

Region Coding List:

- 1 - United States of America, Canada
- 2 - Europe, including France, Greece, Turkey, Egypt, Arabia, Japan and South Africa
- 3 - Korea, Thailand, Vietnam, Borneo and Indonesia
- 4 - Australia and New Zealand, Mexico, the Caribbean, and South America
- 5 - India, Africa, Russia and former USSR countries
- 6 - People's Republic of China

What Region are your DVDs?

We primarily carry Region 1 Discs. However, we do have a small handful of DVD titles that are multi-region and even Region-free. We've tried to mark them where possible.

Why is THIS DVD so much better than THAT DVD?

Like many things, it's the talent of the people who did the mastering. Although the format supports a very high quality image, the preparation of the material determines how good the final will actually look.

Can my DVD play in a Playstation 2?

It depends on the DVD. There have been instances of some DVDs having difficulty playing. While the vast majority will work just fine, we cannot guarantee all anime DVDs will play correctly on a PS2.

Azumanga Daioh

High school has never been so much fun! This outrageously funny series follows the exploits of a handful of high-school girls (all with their own unique idiosyncrasies), their irresponsible teacher Miss Yukari, and a whole set of other off-the-wall characters. Very untraditional as far as manga goes, as most of the stories are very short 4-panel comic strips that build on each other giving you a better understanding of the characters and their cute but unusual daily lives.

Words have power, and Alice has the potential to become a master of this power.

SHIPMENTS TO MILITARY ADDRESSES & US PROTECTORATES

Our domestic standard rates are simple: in the US including APO (AA, AE, AP), FPO, PR, GU and VI please use the Domestic Shipping Options. Please be aware that if you have a PO Box, or are stationed in the service, our standard shipping is limited to Priority Mail because UPS will not deliver to these locations. If you live outside of the areas above, please use our International Shipping Options.

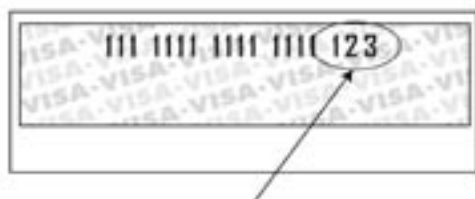

SPECIAL NOTES FOR OUR INTERNATIONAL CUSTOMERS

Shipping companies may charge a fee for delivering your package to a foreign country. Such fees and customs duties are not included in our shipping price, and are your responsibility. We will not be responsible for seized shipments, and cannot provide refunds for seized products. Please check to make sure you are in compliance with all local laws if you are ordering an adult product(s). For first time orders only, we require a copy of some form of ID (can be drivers license, passport, credit card statement, utility bill, etc..) which shows your address along with a photocopy of BOTH THE FRONT AND BACK side of your credit card. This information is to help keep credit card fraud down and is for your protection as well. Upon request, Right Stuf can provide a secure website location for our international customers to submit this information.

I'M RUNNING OUT OF FORMS!!

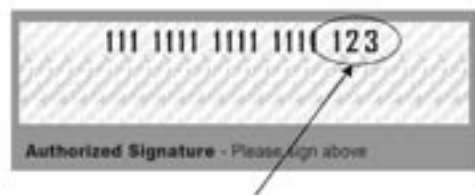

You are hereby authorized and deputized to make copies of this order form. As long as we can read it and all the information is there, you're fine. Copy away. You can also print one from our online pdf at:
<http://www.rightstuf.com/customer/images/orderform.pdf>

SHIPPING INFO:

Please allow 2-6 weeks for delivery. It will almost certainly be closer to 2 than to 6 weeks, but we like to err on the side of caution. Shipping confirmations are often sent via e-mail, so make sure to include your e-mail address!

Please make sure that there is someone at the address we are shipping your product to who can sign for your package. If someone will not be available at your home, consider having the package shipped to your work address (include your company name). If your package is returned to us, we will charge you additional shipping to reshipe it.

Express shipping means that your order will be shipped via 2 Business Day UPS. Actual shipment time can vary based on whether the item(s) is in stock at the time we receive your order. If you need your order as soon as possible, please consider placing your order over the phone (800-338-6827) or through our secure online store (www.rightstuf.com)

Preorder release dates can (and often do) shift about without the manufacturer informing us. If you are concerned about your preorder status, please contact customer service at any time.

PAYMENT METHODS:

We accept Checks and Money Orders in US funds. Sorry, no international checks. Please make all checks / money orders payable to The Right Stuf International, Inc. All checks require at least 18 days to clear our bank. Sorry, no CODs.

We also accept the following payment methods: MasterCard, Visa, American Express, or Discover. Sorry, you can't use your Mom's Sears card ... or your Dad's BP card. For security purposes, we may contact you for additional information which may delay your order.

PLEASE DO NOT SEND CASH THROUGH THE MAIL!!!

RETURN POLICY:

If your merchandise is defective due to a flaw in manufacturing, we are more than happy to replace the product. Unopened DVDs and VHS can be returned for Right Stuf store credit (or in the case of credit cards, refunded to the issuing card.) All returns/refunds must be processed within thirty (30) days of the date on your purchase invoice. If you need to complete a return/refund, please obtain a return authorization number from Customer Service at 800-338-6827 or visit our online request form at: www.rightstuf.com/customer/requestform.shtml

Products returned without a return authorization number, or those more than thirty (30) days after the invoice date, will be returned to the customer.

If the package was damaged while in transit (crushed box): if delivered by UPS, please contact UPS directly at (800) PICK UPS or if delivered by Mail, please contact your local postmaster.
